

Prague, Czech Republic — March 2026

Rising Stars CUP 2026: International Rhythmic Gymnastics Tournament in the Czech Republic

On 21–22 March 2026, the sports hall of Gymnázium Říčany (Komenského náměstí 1280/1, 251 01 Říčany) will host the international rhythmic gymnastics tournament Rising Stars CUP 2026.

The competition will bring together approximately 400 gymnasts from 10 countries, representing 30 clubs. The tournament will become one of the brightest events of the beginning of the rhythmic gymnastics season in the Czech Republic.

The event is organized by SK Allastica Praha, a sports club dedicated to developing rhythmic gymnastics and supporting young talents both in the Czech Republic and internationally.

“We are happy to once again welcome gymnasts from different countries to the Czech Republic. Rising Stars CUP gives athletes the opportunity to demonstrate their skills, gain experience and feel the atmosphere of a true international competition,” said Ala Mastykina, representative of SK Allastica Praha.

Spectators can expect two days of spectacular performances in individual routines. Gymnasts will compete in various age categories from children to seniors.

The tournament will conclude with a ceremonial awards ceremony, honoring the winners and medalists in all categories.

Rising Stars CUP 2026 – Event Information

- Dates: March 21–22, 2026
 - Venue: Sport Hall of Gymnázium Říčany
 - Address: Komenského náměstí 1280/1, 251 01 Říčany
 - Organizer: SK Allastica Praha
 - Countries: 10
 - Clubs: 30
 - Participants: approximately 400 gymnasts
 - Discipline: individual routines
 - Categories: children, juniors and seniors
-

About the Organizer

SK Allastica Praha is a Czech rhythmic gymnastics club focused on developing young athletes and organizing international competitions.

The club also includes five members of the Czech national team in rhythmic gymnastics.